Mike Redd is distinctively a Padu is as great a prob'em as where he to going. At any rate he lived in Palucah for many years and kept pea out stands and restaurants, and was a pretty good sort of a dago. The on y trouble with Mike was that whenever he amassed sufficient wealth, he hied himself to the most convenient place and preceded to exchange it for copious potations of questionable propriety, and when he came to his friends had usually divested his place of business of every vestige of stock.
